

A PIECE OF HISTORY

Built in 1913, this classically restored antebellum-style home is rich with historical details. You'll be greeted with a stunning cast iron fence dating back to 1849 and impressive two-story columns that frame the wrap-around front porch. This property exudes elegance with a grand staircase flanked by inviting parlors that welcome you upon entering the front door. The timeless kitchen has been completely remodeled with marble counter tops and modern appliances. Inside and out, enjoy ample space for entertaining. This inviting property tells a story of North Carolina's history.
