Being offered with a modest reserve, the well-known Howell Residence in the Judson College Historical District has been extensively restored as the photos and property history will reveal.

See GTAuctions.com for Gallery and Open House schedule.

Judson College

East Lafayette Street

The charm of southern history is in the Interbellum construction and the owners instinctively selected period furnishings. The furnishings are not in the auction but will be offered in a tag sale. The tag sale is being conducted by Birmingham Estate Sales (see Bhamestatesales.com) on Nov 14th-16th.
